The Pride of the Engineer

is in his engine. Our pride is in the kind of working clothes we have to sell to railroad men. We want every railroad man in town to know about them. They are the famous Carrharrt Brand of working coats, pants and overalls. They are all union-made. Bring your wife with you the next time you buy clothes and she will understand when she sees them how carefully each stitch has been taken. They are the longest \(\) wearing clothing for the money that is made.

GAME TO THE END.

In the 20th and final round the men shook hands in a gingerly fashion and Lavigne tried a left for the head. Erne broke ground, but came back immediately with right and left on the face. Lavigne's countenance at this moment was anything but prepossessing, both was anything but prepossessing, both eyes being closed. Right and left blows to the body brought Lavigne's guard down, and then Erne smashed his right to the face without a return. Game to the core, Lavigne withstood this punishment and went to his oppenent as if he were only beginning the bout. Erne was relentless, however, and forced the pace, lighting his man as if his life depended on the result. ON THE TURF.

AT SHEEPSHEAD BAY. (By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

New York, July 3.-A good card and fine weather attracted an unusually large crowd to the Sheepshead Bay track to-day. The Pansy stakes was track to-day. The Pansy stakes was the only fixture scheduled. The third race at a mile and a quarter, was the feature of the day. Every horse had a following, Imp, the Suburban winner, closing a lukewarm faverite at 7 to 2. They broke to a god start and Imp at once set out to make the running, closely followed by Box. She held the way up to the back stretch, with Survivor and Tragedian close up. The same order was maintained into the stretch, when Odom called on Tragedian, who came away and wen cleverly by two lengths in record time, Survivor beating Imp a head for the place. Summary:

First-Six furlongs: St. Clair, 7 to 1 won; Captain Sigsbee, 3 to 5 and 1 to 4, second; Swiftmas, 3 to 1, third. Time -1:13 2-5.

ATLANTA'S MAYOR PLEADS

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.) Atlanta, Ga., July 3.—The special City Council committee appointed by City Council committee appointed by Mayor pro tem. Mitchell to investigate the charges made against Mayor James G. Woodward by Dr. L. G. Broughton, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist Church, made a report this afternoon to the effect that its labors were lightened by Mayor Woodward's frank acknowledgment and that promises of amends were made. No recommendations were made by the committee. As soon as the report was read Councilman Maddox asked for the resignation of the Mayor, his exciting speech being seconded by Councilman Thomson. A motion to file the report was made and carried.

A metion to re-commit the original resolution was lost. This, it is believed, ends the Mayor-Broughton incident.
